

Commerce (Number 1)

1	Which technology company has the slogan "Quietly brilliant"?	HTC
2	Which petrol brand's logo has a white star in a red circle?	Texaco
3	Mike Costin and Keith Duckworth formed which UK engineering company in 1958?	Cosworth
4	What website did Google buy in 2006 for 1.65 billion US dollars?	You Tube
5	In 2012, the world's first teletext service was switched off. What was it called?	Ceefax
6	British TV 'Dragon' Theo Paphitis was the chairman of which London football club for eight years until 2006?	Mill wall
7	What 2 colours are the first and last letters of the Google logo?	Blue and red
8	Between 1910 and 1963, what were Avro famous for making?	Aircraft
9	Accounting for approximately 30% of global revenues, what did France introduce in 1954, the UK in 1973 and China in 1984?	VAT
10	What are the first names of former hippies called Cohen and Greenfield who sold their successful business to Unilever in April 2000?	Ben and Jerry