

The human body (Number 4)

1	What external human feature is commonly described as having three parts: cuticle, cortex and medula?	Hair
2	Which constituents of the body are protected by myelin sheaths?	Nerves
3	What is the more common name for synchronous diaphragmatic flutter (SDF)?	Hiccups
4	Which blood group is the most common in the UK?	O (positive)
5	In human anatomy, where are the metacarpals?	Hands
6	Where on the human body would you find a Hallux?	On the foot (it's a toe)
7	What is the name of the white part of the eye?	Sclera
8	In the body, what sort of substances are adrenaline, cortisone, insulin?	Hormones
9	Where would you find the pyloric sphincter?	Stomach
10	What does the lachrymal sac hold?	Tears