

Music (Number 19)

|           |                                                                                                          |                       |
|-----------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------|
| 1  | Which duo had a number one in 1991 with "Stay"?                                                          | Shakespeare's sister  |
| 2  | Good girl gone bad is a 2007 album by which artist?                                                      | Rihanna               |
| 3  | Who in 2016 became the first singer-songwriter to be awarded a Nobel Prize for Literature?               | Bob Dylan             |
| 4  | What was the name of the British new romantic band whose name referred to executions at a Berlin prison? | Spandau Ballet        |
| 5  | In 2017, Stormzy was the first artist to have a grime album go to number one. What was it called?        | Gang signs and prayer |
| 6  | X-scape was a posthumous album released in 2014 by which singer?                                         | Michael Jackson       |
| 7  | What is Morrissey's first name?                                                                          | Stephen               |
| 8  | What was the title of ABBA's last UK number 1 single?                                                    | Super Trouper         |
| 9  | What was Cliff Richards first number one chart hit in 1959?                                              | Living Doll           |
| 10 | Richie Sambora is the guitarist with which band?                                                         | Bon Jovi              |

Carpe Simia Quizzes