

Entertainment:

1.	A man was arrested on suspicion of stealing whose Oscar after the awards ceremony? Frances McDormand's
2.	It was announced in March that who will be taking over as the new host of ITV quiz show Who Wants To Be A Millionaire? Jeremy Clarkson
3.	A film starring a six-year-old deaf British girl and made by two former Hollyoaks stars won an Oscar for best live action short film. What is it called? The Silent child
4.	Which film won the most awards at the Oscars; 4 including best film? The Shape of Water
5.	Michael Rice won £50k in the final of which BBC programme in March? All together now
6.	How did actress Sarah Parish break her leg in March? Sledging
7.	Ken Dodd sadly died in March at what age? 90
8.	It was announced in March that Claire Foy, Queen Elizabeth in the acclaimed Netflix series The Crown, was paid less than her on-screen Duke of Edinburgh. Which actor played the Duke of Edinburgh? Matt Smith
9.	Who finally knocked The Greatest Showman's soundtrack off the top spot in the album charts this week where it had been for 11 weeks? George Ezra

Sport:

10.	Southampton sacked their manager in March with the team just one point and one place above the Premier League relegation zone. What is his name? Mauricio Pellegrino
11.	The Boat race took place in March but who were the race sponsors? Cancer research UK
12.	Which English Boxer was turned into a Barbie doll ahead of International Women's Day? Nicola Adams
13.	Who beat who on points to add the WBO world heavyweight title to his list of titles in March? Anthony Joshua beat Joseph Parker
14.	Which footballer apologised after a video showed him spitting towards a girl in a car from his own vehicle? Jamie Carragher

15.	Sculptor Emanuel Santos, the sculptor behind a bronze bust of which footballer, that was ridiculed on social media when it was unveiled last year has created another? Cristiano Ronaldo
16.	Who cycled from Blackpool to Brighton in March for Sport relief? Zoe Ball

Everything else:

17.	Which actress, best known for her role in the TV show "Sex and the city" announced in March that she is running for Governor of New York? Cynthia Nixon
18.	What is the name of the Salisbury restaurant which had traces of nerve agents after an ex-Russian spy and his daughter were poisoned there? Zizzi
19.	Which politician said in March that too many older people who voted Leave in the Brexit vote longed for a world where "faces were white"? Sir Vince Cable
20.	What is the name of the inventor of the wind-up radio who died in March? Trevor Baylis
21.	Which music magazine announced in March that their print edition would cease publication after 66 years, leaving it as an online-only title? NME (New Music Express)
22.	What was Amazon's Alexa doing in March that was startling users? Unexpectedly laughing
23.	Which airline accepted "full responsibility" for a dog's in-flight death in March after a flight attendant put the pet in the overhead locker? United Airlines
24.	Which company was accused in March of improperly using data taken from Facebook on behalf of political clients? Cambridge Analytica
25.	Where was the funeral of Stephen Hawking held in March? Cambridge
26.	What is the name of the Secretary of State sacked by Donald Trump in March? Rex Tillerson
27.	This year's happiest place on Earth is which country, according to an annual UN report? Finland
28.	The founder of the Toys R Us chain died in March, a week after the chain announced that it was closing its doors for good. Name him. Charles Lazarus
29.	Which airline completed the first scheduled non-stop flight between Australia and the UK in March? Qantas
30.	A sculpture which is made out of 10,500 tins of Iraqi date syrup was unveiled where in March?

	Trafalgar square
31.	People in eastern Europe were wondering at the appearance of snowfall in March as it appeared to be what colour? Orange.
32.	What is the name of the head of the parole board who resigned last week over the John Worboys case? Nick Hardwick