

Commerce (Number 5)

1	Which British newspaper was launched with the slogan "it is, are you"?	The Independent
2	Kilner, Mason, and Weck are brands of what?	Glass jars
3	How many dots make up the BlackBerry symbol logo?	Seven
4	Founded in 1827 by Karl Baedeker and run by his family until 1984, the German company is famous for what?	Travel guides
5	Lafarge, Holcim, and Heidelberg are among the world's leading producers of what?	Cement (and stone-based construction materials)
6	What is the name of the stock market index in Japan?	Nikkei
7	What was the appropriately named company that Britain's first cosmonaut, Helen Sharmen worked for?	Mars
8	On the ebay website logo, what colour is the letter Y?	Green
9	Considered the UK's oldest still operating manufacturing company, established in 1570, what does the Whitechapel Foundry make?	Bells
10	What are you shopping for if you are using a Brannock Device to work out your size?	Shoes