

1.	It was announced at the beginning of January that thousands of staff from which company are set to get a £300 one-off payment after a "phenomenal year", the firm said? Greggs
2.	Justin Bieber revealed in January that he has been diagnosed with what tick-borne disease? Lyme disease
3.	What is the name of the virus that caused several large cities in China to go into shutdown in January? Coronavirus
4.	Unilever said it might sell one of the UK's biggest names in tea. But for which brand is it considering selling, amid falling demand for black tea? PG Tips
5.	Burger King released a plant-based Rebel Whopper in January but has said that it is not suitable for vegans. Why? Because the Rebel Whopper is cooked on the same grill as meat burgers
6.	On the day that Harry and Meghan announced that they were stepping back from senior royal duties, which royal relative was banned from driving? Zara Tindall
7.	Nicholas Parsons sadly died in January 2020 but which Radio panel show did he host since its inception in 1967? Just a Minute
8.	It was announced in January that which artist who at just 18, is the youngest artist in history to write and record a theme for the James Bond franchise having recorded the theme tune to the latest film No time to die? Billie Eilish
9.	Which newsreader stepped down from the ITV News in January in the wake of a Twitter race row? Alastair Stewart
10.	Disney has rebranded the 20th Century Fox film studios. But which word did it drop from the new name? Fox
11.	A horse on the loose on the A48 in Cardiff in mid-January was removed from the road in which unusual way? It was put on a bus!
12.	Which Premiership Rugby team were told that they were to be relegated at the end of the season after being handed a 35-point deduction and fined £5.3m last year for breaching Premiership Rugby salary cap regulations? Saracens
13.	Celebrities descended on the final fashion show of which fashion designer in Paris in January as he took his final bow after a 50-year career? Jean-Paul Gaultier
14.	A Chinese theme park caused outrage on social media after it forced what animal to bungee jump off a 68-metre high tower in a stunt to advertise the opening of the new attraction? A pig
15.	The basketball legend Kobe Bryant sadly died in January but which basketball team did he play for during his basketball career? LA Lakers
16.	There was outrage in January after Tate Britain advertised what job with a wage of almost £40,000 a year?

	Head of coffee
17.	The author of the best-selling Jack Reacher novels is handing over the writing duties to his younger brother who is an author. What is his name? Lee Child
18.	Who swept the board at the 2020 Grammys, winning five awards, including best new artist and song of the year? Billie Eilish
19.	A woman died in January in Australia after taking part in a contest to eat as many of what iconic Australian cake as possible? Lamingtons
20.	Many people were celebrating Chinese New Year in January as we went into the year of what animal? Rat