

Toys and games (Number 3)

1	In the board game of Risk, what continent does the colour blue represent?	Europe
2	The Super Mario brothers often ride which sticky tongued dragon like dinosaur?	Yoshi
3	Edward Hoyle is best known for his writing about the rules of which type of games?	Card games
4	Risk, Monopoly and Cluedo are all board games that were first introduced in the UK by which board games company?	Waddington's
5	What children's modelling product did William Harbutt devise and produce in 1900, in an old flourmill near Bath?	Plasticine
6	In which decade was the original Space invaders first published?	1970's (1978)
7	Which geometric drawing toy was developed by Denys Fisher in the 1960's?	Spirograph
8	In Monopoly, what colour are Bow street, Marlborough street and Vine street?	Orange
9	The Minecraft game was originally developed and published in which country?	Sweden
10	Spilikins are the name of the pegs used to score which game?	Crib

