

Science (Number 9)

1	In computing, a terabyte is how many bytes?	A trillion
2	Commonly used in batteries, what is the lightest metal and least dense solid element?	Lithium
3	Which acid has the chemical formula HNO ₃ and is known as Aqua Fortis?	Nitric acid
4	What unit of volume is an eighth of a fluid ounce?	A dram
5	What is the integer that forms the top part of a fraction called?	Numerator
6	Bauxite is the main ore for which metal?	Aluminium
7	What name is given to the hypothetical climactic effect of nuclear war due to the effect it could have on the atmosphere?	Nuclear Winter
8	German physicist Max Planck is regarded as the founder of which theory, for which he won the Nobel Prize in physics in 1918?	Quantum Theory
9	Which common medicine, produced by living microbes, has a name that means 'against life' in Greek?	Antibiotic
10	What metal is the best electric conductor?	Silver