

Commerce (Number 2)

| | | |
|-----------|--|-----------------------------------|
| 1 | What does Barclays Bank call its 7,000 IT help staff initiative, launched 2013? | Digital Eagles |
| 2 | What does the title of the publication FHM stand for? | For him magazine |
| 3 | Monsanto is a globally dominant corporation in which sector? | Agriculture (chemicals and seeds) |
| 4 | "Once you pop, you can't stop" is the slogan for which product? | Pringles |
| 5 | What part of the body is on the Nokia logo? | Hands |
| 6 | Which household device, invented in 1869 was originally called "the whirlwind"? | Vacuum cleaner |
| 7 | What was "The Daily Herald" renamed in 1964, after having been sold to Rupert Murdoch? | The Sun |
| 8 | Which New York City street is synonymous with the US advertising industry? | Madison Avenue |
| 9 | In the 1950's, Brooke Bond was the largest seller of what product in the world? | Tea |
| 10 | In 2008, The US government took control of the two biggest mortgage companies in the US. Both had strange names. What were they? | Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac |