

Famous products (Number 1)

1	What did Earl Hass invent, that is used on a monthly basis, that saw him listed as one of the Sunday Times top inventors of the 20th century?	Tampons
2	What technological kitchen development is Kenneth Wood famous for?	The food processor (Kenwood)
3	What does the 'Q' stand for in the name of the cotton buds Q-Tips?	Quality
4	Kevlar, the high-strength material, used in armour and sports equipment, is a product made by which corporation?	DuPont
5	What is the surname of Earl Silus who developed a packaging product from Polythene?	Tupper
6	In D.I.Y, which company licenced and produced the portable workbench 'The Workmate' in the 1970's?	Black and Decker
7	What toy was invented by a carpenter named Ole Kirk Christiansen?	Lego
8	What is the most famous product from Murano, Venice?	Glass
9	Dr Martens were named after a Klaus Martens but what was Mr Martens career?	He was a doctor
10	By what trade name is Sildenafil better known?	Viagra